

Name: _____

Date: _____

Dear Teacher,

Recess is an important part of the school day. Children need to run, jump, and play. Playing sports is an enjoyable way for us to stretch our legs and exercise our bodies. Some students can get restless sitting down all day. They need a break from learning. Studies show that students who are physically active improve their grades. Please keep recess in the school day, so we can improve our grades and stay healthy.

Sincerely,

Your Students

Text evidence that tells me the author's purpose is to persuade:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

This letter was written to persuade the reader to:
